Corporate Governance for Top Level Executives in Commercial Banks — Emerging Paradigms

June 13 – 14, 2019

National Institute of Bank Management
Pune, India

Corporate Governance in Commercial Banks – Emerging Paradigms

To meet the emerging challenges in a globalized, highly competitive, turbulent and uncertain environment, the commercial banks will have to steer their organizations to sustain their success. The objective of this programme entitled 'Corporate Governance in Commercial Banks – Emerging Paradigms' is to help participants understand the interplay of the various dimensions of corporate governance and thereby strengthen their banks through appropriate practices.

The programme is designed to provide inputs that will ensure participants develop a deep appreciation of the major aspects in corporate governance – the legal and regulatory issues, the strategic and business issues, and the operational aspects that impact the efficiency of banks. The programme will have a major emphasis on the role of Directors in fostering good corporate governance in commercial banks.

Objectives

- ☞ To provide participants with a deep understanding of the issues related to legal and regulatory issues of corporate governance;
- ☞ To enable participants to appreciate the strategic issues that impact the banking and financial services industry;
- ☞ To provide participants with an appreciation of the efficiency related issues and decision making.

Pedagogy

The programme pedagogy will involve interactive lectures, discussion sessions, and a practical orientation through interaction with banking professionals. The faculty will include former Deputy Governor(s) of Reserve Bank of India, former Chairmen / Managing Directors / Executive Directors of Commercial Banks.
