Programme in Technical Analysis for Dealers

There is an increased use of technical analysis by trading desks of banks and financial institutions for understanding exchange rate movements and taking positions. Technical analysis has continually aided traders to make informed decisions based on study of market action, mostly through use of charts. Informed decision-making in the treasury is keenly dependent on knowledge of technical analysis tools and its studied application.

The institute is offering this programme to help forex dealers to refine trading strategies using technical analysis, use technical analysis tools more appropriately, and use knowledge of fundamental factors to support technical analysis.

Pedagogy

The programme focuses on hands-on trading and technical analysis of live charts for effective learning. There will be continued interactions with industry experts throughout the programme, especially during the hand-on sessions to help executives refine strategies for propriety forex trading.
