Advanced Programme on Card Payment System

(A Joint Programme of NIBM and NPCI)

Credit and debit cards are emerging as a convenient form of making payments for goods and services without the use of actual cash or cheques and offers promising opportunities for banks to increase their payment business. We are witnessing lots of innovation in card payment instruments such as prepaid cards, contactless cards, EMV and virtual cards. Card-based payments in India, in terms of volume, increased from 404.4 million in 2009-10 to 1,737.7 million in 2014-15. In terms of value, the increase was from Rs 0.9 trillion in 2009-10 to Rs 3.3 trillion in 2014-15. Card business offers banks significant opportunities to increase transaction volumes and earn fee income through interchange. To remain competitive, banks would, therefore, have to tailor their card payment products and services to suit the requirement of their customers. It is against this background that the training programme has been conceived by NIBM in collaboration with National Payments Corporation of India (NPCI).

Objectives

- To provide exposure to complexities in card payment system like authorisation, clearing and settlement services.
- To introduce participants to the four-party and three-party model, the roles played by issuers, acquirers, merchants and the key steps involved in a transaction being authorised through to being cleared, and then settled.
- To provide them an insight into the key areas of the card business, highlighting industry trends along with the business drivers, best practice techniques for running a successful card business, and loyalty programmes.
- To focus on how the competition in card payment system is growing with the introduction of RuPay or a domestic card payment network vis-a-vis interchange schemes like Visa, MasterCard, American Express and Discover.
