About the Institute

The NIBM is a premier academic-cum-training institute for providing research, training and consultancy services to the banking industry and financial institutions both in India and abroad. The Institute was established in 1969 as an autonomous body by the Government of India and is supported by the Reserve Bank of India, Commercial Banks and Financial Institutions in India.

The Institute aims at promoting professionalism in the management of banks and other financial institutions by carrying out the following functions:

- ❖ Imparting training and education to bankers both in general and functional management areas.
- ❖ Conducting fundamental and applied research on problems concerning the banking industry.
- ❖ Providing consultancy and other advisory services to the industry in their problem solving endeavours.

The NIBM currently has around 30 faculty members including the visiting faculty, working in the following area groups (multi-disciplinary approach): (a) Finance, (b) Human Resource Management, (c) Information Technology, (d) Money, International Banking and Finance, (e) Rural Finance and Development, (f) Strategic Planning, Marketing and Control.

The Institute conducts the following major education and training programmes:

- * Top management conferences and seminars on policy issues.
- * Training programmes in functional and general management areas for senior bank executives from India and other countries.
- * Programmes for development of faculty at the banks' training establishments.

- * Incompany programmes for meeting organization-specific requirements of banks and financial institutions both in India and abroad.
- * Conducting AICTE approved Post-Graduate Diploma in Management (PGDM) - Banking and Financial Services to provide to the financial system a pool of talented young executives on a regular basis.

The Institute has been actively involved in research on various subjects concerning the banking and financial system. It has brought out more than 100 publications in the form of books and monographs.

The Institute also brings out the following quarterly Journals in English:

- Prajnan: Journal of Social and Management Science (launched in 1972)
- Vinimaya: Presents conceptual and practical view points of both the bankers and management educationists on issues of bank management in an informal style (launched in 1976)

The Institute has contributed significantly to the development of banking and financial sector in India and other developing countries through its consultancy and policy research activities in diverse areas.

The Institute has an excellent Library with more than 65,000 books, 10,000 bound volumes of journals and 2,000 reports of various committees. The library receives more than 240 Indian and foreign academic journals on various subjects of management, information technology, banking and finance.

The Institute also has a modern, well-equipped Computer Service Centre to support its academic activities.

The Institute has excellent Administrative Support Facilities for carrying out its activities. These include reprographic services, internet and e-mail facilities, travel booking arrangements, entertainment facilities, etc. Medical facilities are also provided within the campus. The supporting administrative staff is efficient and well organized.

The NIBM Campus is situated in sylvan surroundings with well-maintained gardens, lawns and trees. The Institute buildings are spread over an area of 60 acres in a valley situated about 9 kms from Pune railway station and 16 kms from the airport.

The Institute has facilities for outdoor and indoor games and a large walking/jogging trail for physical fitness besides a yoga centre. Participants are, therefore, encouraged to bring the appropriate clothes/gears.

City of Pune

The Institute is located on the outskirts of Pune, a metropolitan city in Maharashtra state about 170 km to the south-east of Mumbai. The city is well-connected by air, rail and road to all the major cities and business centres of the country. Pune, considered to be the educational and cultural capital of the state, is endowed with a number of renowned institutions. Besides, it has a prominent place in the historical map of the country. The city also houses a variety of large and medium sized industrial units and IT companies.

Climate

The city being situated on the eastern hills of the Sahyadri range of mountains of the western ghats, the climate is generally pleasant. Day time temperature during the scheduled programme will be a maximum of 29°C and a minimum of 11°C at night.

Reaching NIBM Campus

A relevant road map of Pune to guide the arriving participants is given on NIBM website. The Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj International Airport at Mumbai is the nearest international airport. Pune is connected by air and rail from major metros like Mumbai, New Delhi, Kolkata, Chennai and Bangalore. The city is also approachable by road from Mumbai and the shared taxi service, luxury (AC Volvo) and semi-luxury (ASIAD) buses are regularly available from the Mumbai airport and Dadar TT

(about 15 kilometres from the airport). The taxi and bus charges are about Rs 450 and Rs 250-550 per head respectively. The road journey of 200 kilometres from Mumbai to Pune normally takes around 3.5 hours.

Participants will be received at the Pune railway/bus station/taxi stand/airport only if a request is made in advance indicating confirmed arrival timings. In case of any requirements on arrival at Mumbai, participants may contact:
