

NIBM holds national summit on infrastructure finance

PUNE: National Institute of Bank Management (NIBM) in association with ASSOCHAM, organised a national summit on 'Infrastructure Finance - Opportunities & Challenges' on January 29 at the institute's campus. The summit was attended by 250 delegates and participants. Anand Sinha, former deputy governor, Reserve Bank of India, was the chief guest. PK Gupta, managing director (retail and digital banking), State Bank of India and SR Bansal, former chairman and managing director, Corporation Bank were the guests of honour.

N

Hindustan Times

dt 30/1/19

Pg. 2.