

National Institute of Bank Management (NIBM) becomes the first Institution to start E-Certification Courses for Small Finance Banks and Payment Banks

Posted By: admin on: April 12, 2019 In: Education No Comments

Pune, April 12, 2019: Following the guidance of Reserve Bank of India (RBI) on capacity building in Banks and All India Finance Institutions, and upon recommendations of the Expert Committee under the Indian Banks' Association (IBA), NIBM had launched the Online Certification Courses in four core areas of (i) Credit Management (ii) Risk Management, (iii) Treasury Management and (iv) Accounts and Audit on 30th September 2017. Further, the Institute has subsequently launched courses on (v) Retail Credit Management and (vi) Credit Management for Small Finance Banks. A course on (vii) Banking Operations and Management for Payment Banks is already launched by NIBM. NIBM received a tumultuous response from various categories of Banks such as Public and Private Sector Banks, Foreign Banks, Small Finance Banks, etc. More than 4130 employees of different organizations have registered during the last 18 months ending 31st March 2019 for the E-Certification Courses of NIBM.

Small Finance Banks and Payment Banks are the new categories of Banks licensed by RBI in 2015. Out of the eleven Institutions identified by IBA, NIBM is the only Institute to have started separate courses for Small Finance Banks and also for Payment Banks.

Along with these initiatives and its training programmes, NIBM has been meeting the requirements of the training and capacity building of the banking sector.

