

NIBM holds conference on July 5-6

PUNE: National Institute of Bank Management (NIBM) will hold a conference on Indian Banking System: Way Forward on the Current Crisis from July 5-6. The meet will discuss the current crisis in the Indian banking sector and will envision how the various stakeholders can work towards finding ways out of the current crisis and creation of a robust Indian banking sector. Prof Errol D'Souza, director, IIM, Ahmedabad will deliver the keynote address. Kewal Handa, non-executive chairman, Union Bank of India; Debasish Mallick, deputy managing director, Export-Import Bank of India and KL Dhingra, director, NIBM will be present.

Library
National Institute of Bank Management
Pune 411004.