

Women's Day Celebrations at NIBM goes international....

Posted By: admin on: March 16, 2018 In: International Women's Day No Comments

Dr K L Dhingra, Director, NIBM greeted the women employees of the Institute who constitute 42 per cent of the Staff; and the international training programme participants who are attending the course on Banking and Finance. These women participants have come from 22 different Asian, African, and CIS countries.

On this inspiring occasion, women from different cultural milieu, transcending their geographical boundaries, shared their experiences over a high tea organized in their honour.