

World Wide Achievers Award, 2018 for NIBM

Posted By: admin on: March 27, 2018 In: Regional No Comments

The National Institute of Bank Management, Pune has been conferred with a most prestigious award for its Post Graduate Diploma in Banking and Finance (PGDM) as an “Outstanding B School for Finance and Banking in India” at the World Education Summit & Awards 2018, function held at Delhi today evening. The award was given by Padma Bhushan, Ms Sharmila Tagore, the famous celebrity actress of Film & Television and former UNICEF Goodwill Ambassador. Dr K L Dhingra, Director, NIBM received the award on behalf of the Institute.

Established by the Reserve Bank of India, NIBM is the apex institution in Banking and Finance. It is renowned for quality training, education and industry interface. Its two-year AICTE recognised, residential Post Graduate Diploma in Management (Banking and Financial Services) offers the best in domain expertise and practical experience from the world of finance. Leveraging its core competencies in research, training and consulting to the banking and financial services sector, NIBM started the PGDM (B&FS) with the objective of developing young executives specialized in core business operations and functions in banking and financial services. PGDM (B&FS), held on residential basis, is providing to the financial system a pool of talented youngsters thoroughly trained and prepared with Analytical Skills & Perspectives in Banking and Finance for directly taking up managerial responsibilities.